

START TIME	Day 2		Monday 7 May
8.00	Registration		1.20 Getting it Right - ethical reporting on people impacted by trauma DART Centre for Journalism & Trauma-training DVD
8.30	Welcome from the Chair Peter Rekers, Chairman, EMPA		1.45 Getting it right - discussion panel Cait McMahon, DART Centre for Journalism & Trauma
8.45	Host state welcome		Prof Matthew Ricketson, Canberra University Prof Beverley Raphael, University of Western Sydney
9.15	KEYNOTE Emergency Services-the importance of the ABC Mark Scott, Managing Director, Australian Broadcasting Corporation		2.40 Peer Support Program for ABC Journalists Ian Mannix, Manager Emergency Broadcasting and Community Development, ABC
10.15	Coffee Break		3.20 Coffee Break
10.40	KEYNOTE Nancy Rigg, Writer, Filmmaker, Public Safety Expert, US 'National Treasure' After a tragic episode in her own life, Nancy used her skills to advocate for a swiftwater rescue program that became a reality in 1992. Her ability to tell the deep feeling story has gained her worldwide recognition as an inspiration and advocate.		3.40 'Firebell'-Running an Exercise with Social Media Nathan Maddock, Office of the Emergency Services Commissioner
11.40	Topic TBA Hugh Riminton, Network Ten		4.20 Keynote: TBA Ian Woolverton, Save the Children Foundation
12.20	Lunch		5.00 Close
			7.00 Conference Dinner

May be subject to change